Plop's world

We can build up a picture of where Plop lives through the words which describe the story setting. The 'word picture' below has been created from all the information in the book that describes the story setting.

- As you read the book, record the page number where each setting feature is found.
- Use the word picture to draw your own illustration of Plop's world on a separate sheet.

| Setting | Page number |
|--|-------------|
| Woods | |
